NEW YORK, July 3.-George Adams. who came to this country from England who came to this country from England thirty years ago, is sought by a Hartford, Conn., lawyer, who says that $35,000 awaits Adams in England. No trace of Adams has been found since he went to Illinois. He was left an orphan in Wakefield, England, when a small boy. An sunt and uncle put him to work in the coal mines, but soon afterward he had both legs broken. He had no medical care, the broken bones were never set and his legs were left crocked. As soon as he could walk he left his foster parents and came to America.

Nos. 5309 and 5307-Ladies' Costume

Nos. 5309 and 5307-Ladies' Costume Itse like is employed with good effect in the development of this charming costume of old blue crepe de chine. A fitted lining supports the waist, which closes in deable-breasted style. Tucks in the upper part of the front produce sufficient fulness to fall stylishly over the belt. A distinctive feature of the mode is an oddly-shaped collar and front facing combined. The collar and elimesette are made of the lace. The sleeves may be either in elbow or full length. If in full length the lower part should be of lace. The skirt is one of the most graceful of the new designs, and may be tucked, shirred or gathered at the top. Crepe de Paris, nun's veiling, etamine, greenodine, albatross and cashmere are all available. The medium size will require two and one-eighth yards of material forty-four inches wide for the waist and five and one-quarter yards for the skirt.

A LIBEL ON THE PROPHET.

"The Prophel Joseph and Oliver Cowdery of one occasion agreed to enter into covenant is the effect that if the Lord would prosper them they would give a tenth of all that He should give to them, to be bestowed upon the po-of the church."—Desertet News.

give to them, to be bestowed upon the poor of the church."—Desert News.

In a diatribo on the subject of tithing, the sanctified (?) aposite-editor, in the above quoted words, libels the prophet. Joseph Smith, and blasphemes God Almighty. The News cannot produce any authentic document to prove this monstrous thing. It is purely an invention of the perverted mind of the aposite-editor. To bolster up an improper use of funds paid by a confiding people "to be bestowed upon the poor," this "apostic" bears false witness against the founder and prophet of his own church and the Lord as well. Happily, there is an authentic record (and by the Mormon people accepted as a divine record) of what he Lord said to Joseph Smith, and what Joseph Smith agreed to by publishing it to the world. We quote from section 24 of the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, verses 7 and 2: "For thou shalt devote all thy service in Zion; and in this thou shalt have strength. And in temporal labors thou shalt not have strength, for this is not thy calling. Attend to thy calling and thou shalt have wherewith to magnify thine office."

So Jeseph Smith had no occasion to make such a "covenant," for the Lord had already provided blim bis calling and given him assurance of his necessary recompense. The Lord here tells Joseph Smith hat he must not engage in business, and if he should, the Lord would not prosper him; "in temporal labors thou shalt not have strength," meaning in ordinary English that the prophet would fall.

According to Penrose, the prophet had such a venual mind and such a coarse, is-not prosper him; "in temporal labors thou shalt not have strength," meaning in ordinary English that the prophet would fall.

According to Penrose, the prophet had such a venal mind and such a coarse, is norant conception of God, that he demanded a guarantee of prosperity from the Lord before he would bestow intring upon the poor. His worst enemy never charged him with such a low and contemptible thing, it remains for a professed follower, posing as a sainted aposite, to thus malign his memory.

And what sort of a personage would this "apostie" have the Mormons believe the Lord to he? A more irrevorent and contemptuous reference to God was never made by blatant infidel or andactous scoffer. No man at all sincere of belief in the existence and power of God could for a moment entertain such a thought.

The Lord to be bargained with! If the Lord would prosper them, they would give one-tenth " " to be bestowed upon the poor of the church." Neither Jew nor Gentile, saint nor sioner, good nor bad, nor the mest miserly and uncharitable would uiter objection fo that sort of a contract—if the Lord would prosper them! How the Lord must have changed since He gave the peremptory order: "Sell all that thou hast and give to the poor, and follow me," who have not where to lay my head!

Mormon people: Isn't it a libel on you, too as well as on your beloved prophet? And Isn't it outrageous for this "aposite" to deliberately attempt to deceive the stranger without the gates into believing that your tithing is bestowed upon the poor? Isn't it brazen, when you know—all of you—that the one-tenth is not so bestowed; but that after paying your tithing, you onleet to Sait Lake? That the one-quith should, primarily, be bestowed upon the poor is what your have to struggle to get money to support your peor, while you send every dollar of the tithing you collect to Sait Lake? That the one-quith should, primarily, be bestowed upon the poor is what your pained hearts have been secretly crying for, and your patient tongues advocating, when y
